

I am appalled that members of the FCC are so obviously grabbing for cash. I ask you to maintain net neutrality and to stop this proposed legislation from going through! To call yourselves representatives of the people and act in such selfishness is lower than low- no matter how much money you have.

-Brian Gleason